Introducing: Alec Flores Youth Sports Scholarship Corporation

Flores was an avid and accomplished young athlete. He loved, and lived for, wrestling and football; the challenge, triumph, the friendships and community. His family has established the Alec Flores Youth Sports Scholarship Corporation, a 501c3 not-for-profit organization, in his memory. The purpose is to celebrate and remember Alec and his love of sports and to recognize the positive impact athletics had on his life while helping provide the similar opportunities for others. The organization will provide scholarships and advocate for youth sports.
